FROM THE CHAIRMAN

Welcome to the officials, players and supporters of Rising Ballers Kensington for this Cherry Red Records Combined Counties League Division One match along with the referee Stephen Conway and his assistants George Patriche and Reda Imane.

As many of you will know, I enjoy following cricket as well as football. This week, I have been focussing on Middlesex as they fight for their survival in the LV County Championship Division One.

As I am writing this, Middlesex are entering the final day of their match with Nottinghamshire. If I am smiling today, then you will know that Middlesex have performed the Great Escape. On the other hand, if I am grumpy then, you have guessed it, Middlesex have been relegated back to Division Two.

Yes, I know the word 'relegated' has appeared in my notes but I agree it is too early to think on those lines as far as Brook House is concerned.

However, our form has been rather unpredictable. I thought we did really well to defeat league leaders Amersham Town 4-3 three weeks ago. But I was dumbfounded when we went to fellow strugglers London Colney for our next match and suffered a 5-0 defeat.

I certainly was thinking the worst when we travelled last Sunday to CCL Premier North side Hilltop, who are having a decent season. We battled bravely to draw 1-1 and take the Isuzu FA Vase tie to kicks from the penalty mark. Unfortunately, we lost this shoot-out by a 4-3 margin so that was the end of the national competitions.

We need to reproduce the spirit we showed against Amersham Town and Hilltop as we take on Rising Ballers Kensington this afternoon. Then on Tuesday evening we are back in action here at Farm Park when we host Tooting & Mitcham United in the Cherry Red Records Premier Challenge Cup. Kick-off is at 7.30pm

BROOK HOUSE UNDER-18s

Brook House suffered a 5-2 defeat in their opening Tony Ford Under-18s Division West against Amersham with goals from Lewis McEwan-DiMaria and Joshua Dean.

Brook House: Jeremy Ashokkumar, Joshua Dean, Trevon Jacobs, Aaron Jeebun, Ikjot Khaneja, Lewis McEwan-DiMaria, Henry Mogey, Kanhav Parashar, Riley Parker, Daniel Speed, Ondrej Zimcik. Subs: Finlay Goulding, Sadushan Yattheeswaran.

The Farm Park side were in Tony Ford Youth Challenge Cup action on Thursday evening when they travelled to Colliers Wood United (East).

It was a disappointing evening for our youngsters as they suffered a 7-1 defeat against a strong side.

The Under-18s are back in league action on Wednesday when they host Cobham Academy at 7.30pm.

CCL DIVISION ONE REVIEW

This is the time of year when students are off to university and it has left me wondering if there is a course that can analyse Brook House's results in recent weeks.

After a string of disappointing scorelines that has left them languishing towards the bottom of the Cherry Red Records Combined Counties League Division One table, Brook House pulled off an amazing 4-3 home victory over leaders Amersham Town with two goals each from Jacob Adeyemi and Ricardo Adewuyi.

This result pushed The Brook a few places up the table but the joy was shortlived when we made the trip to fellow strugglers London Colney a fortnight ago. The algorithm was certainly put out of sequence as the St Albans side ran riot and emerged as 5-0 winners.

It was certainly a case of one foot forwards and several back and it did not bode well for our trip to Hillingdon to take on CCL Premier Division North Hilltop in the Isuzu FA Vase last Sunday.

As at 28th September

The London Colney nightmare was soon forgotten as Brook House put up a battling performance to earn a 1-1 draw to take the game to kicks from the penalty mark. Luck in the lottery competition was not on the visitors' side as they went down 4-3 in a nailbiter.

One of the best performances in the Vase came from Amersham, who eased to a 7-0 victory against Northampton ON Chenecks with Jake Tabor bagging a double hat-trick. FC Deportivo Galicia crashed 8-0 at Wellingborough Town.

RISING BALLERS KENSINGTON

Rising Ballers Kensington come into this Cherry Red Records Combined Counties League Division One clash without a win in five games in all competitions.

However, some would argue that this is not the case as the Berkeley Fields based side progressed to the First Round Proper of the Isuzu FA Vase last weekend.

The actual game, though ended in a 1-1 draw against Wellingborough Whitworths with Mohamed Ihid netting for the hosts.

Rising Ballers were able to take up their place in the next round by winning the kicks from the penalty mark by a 4-3 margin.

Mohamed Ihid also found the back of the net in the Cherry Reds Records Premier Challenge Cup tie against their landlords North Greenford United on Tuesday but Rising Ballers suffered a 2-1 defeat.

Their last win was at the end of August with a 3-2 success at Oxhey Jets.

THE NON-LEAGUE PAPER

ESSENTIAL READING FOR FOLLOWERS OF THE NATIONAL GAME

Mention 'FA Cup fairytales' and your minds naturally think back to the magic produced on the field over the years; Wimbledon's historic win in '88, Luton Town beating Premier League Norwich on the road, or Lincoln City's mesmerising run to the quarter-finals in 2016-17.

But every year The NLP takes great delight in revealing the stories the fans don't see that the FA Cup never fails to conjure up. This week, ahead of the third qualifying round we met three more unsung cup heroes who have their own particular reason to be glued to the action.

James Connor was cruelly denied a chance of fulfilling an FA Cup dream as a player. Teenage midfielder had turned heads as a teenage midfielder at Aldershot FC when the then Division Four club were liquidated in the early 90s.

Labelled one of London's top young talents at the time, Mick McCarthy swooped to offer him an almost unheard-of five-year deal at Millwall, but just two months and 10 games into his fledgling career, a knee injury forced the young Lion to hang up his boots and set his sights on a different career at the ripe age of just 22.

These days, Connor now runs his own successful wealth management firm and, through choice, has had no dealings with football – until recently that is.

After agreeing to run his son's Under-nines at Hanworth Villa, Connor rediscovered his love for the game and is now very much back in the hotseat having taken over the chairmanship of the Isthmian League South Central club from his father Jim, who himself founded the Villains back in 1976..

This weekend, Connor turns their attentions to the FA Cup where victory at Horsham this afternoon will see them reach the fourth qualifying round for only the second time in the club's history.

"To be honest, I was never a huge football fan and never really understood the mentality of a football fan, until now," he told us. "I've been back in football now for two years and I'm loving every minute of it. The non-league scene is such an exciting place to be. It's where it's at.

"When we played Hythe Town in the first qualifying round, we took the kids swimming in the sea. Those are the stories to the 'Road to Wembley' that supporters of the bigger clubs don't see.

"We've got a really tough game to come against Horsham and we'll be playing as the underdog. But giant-killings do happen in the FA Cup, it's what makes it such a special competition, so we're just really looking forward to it."
