FROM THE CHAIRMAN

Welcome to the officials, players and supporters of Woodley United for this Cherry Red Records Combined Counties League Division One match along with the referee Oliver Simnock and his assistants Harry Cowell and Patrycjusz Klosinski.

In my last notes, there was a warning that I could be grumpy if my beloved cricket team Middlesex were relegated from the LV County Championship. The only consolation is that our programme editor's side Northamptonshire also suffered the same fate.

Someone did spot that I did have half a smile in the league game here at Farm Park on 30th September, as we put up a battling performance against Rising Ballers Kensington before suffering a 3-2 defeat.

However, my smiley face has completely disappeared as we have lost the next three games without scoring a goal. The first was a Cherry Red Records Premier Challenge Cup First Round tie against Tooting & Mitcham United. I enjoy facing clubs that have a long, traditional history including some impressive performances in the FA Cup.

Unfortunately, they have hit difficult times and are currently in the Cherry Red Records Combined Counties League Premier Division South. Tooting & Mitcham United had suffered a heavy defeat against Knaphill in their league but defeated us 2-0 to progress into the Second Round of the Challenge Cup.

What was disappointing was that we did not get anything out of the league match against fellow strugglers Bagshot last weekend and also went down 3-0 at Rising Ballers Kensington on Tuesday evening.

This Monday evening, there is a special game here at Farm Park between England Fans FC and Aussie Supporteroos FC at 7.30pm. Entry is free.

CCL DIVISION ONE REVIEW

The top and bottom of the Cherry Red Records Combined Counties League Division One appears to have been decided and we are only in mid-October.

Amersham Town have an amazing nine-point lead at the top although second placed Berks County have three games in hand.

Town showed their class on Tuesday evening when they clinched a 6-0 away victory over Holmer Green, who have only picked up one win in their 13 games and are rooted to the bottom of the table with only three points.

Brook House are in the other relegation spot following defeats against Bagshot and Rising Ballers Kensington during the past week.

WOODLEY UNITED

Woodley United are currently 15th in the Cherry Red Records Combined Counties League Division One but have games in hand over most of their rivals.

United have won four of their ten league games and drawn two but have lost their last two including a 2-1 setback at home to leaders Amersham Town last weekend.

This was followed by a 5-3 defeat at home to Eversley & California on Tuesday evening where Sid Gbla and Connor Richardson were on the hosts scoresheet along with an own goal.

The Berkshire side have shown some good form in cup competitions and are still in the Isuzu FA Vase with their latest success being a 2-1 win at Gloucestershire side Newent Town where Sid Gbla netted twice.

In the next round, Woodley United have a shorter trip on 21st October when they go to Cherry Red Records Combined Counties League Premier North side Virginia Water.

Woodley United defeated Penn & Tylers Green 5-2 in the Cherry Red Records Premier Challenge Cup.

THE NON-LEAGUE PAPER

ESSENTIAL READING FOR FOLLOWERS OF THE NATIONAL GAME

To subscribe, visit www.thenonleaguefootballpaper.com/subscriptions

After months of uncertainty, angst and sheer agony at times, the long-suffering supporters of Southend United and Scunthorpe United were finally given some reason to cheer last week.

Two proud, but horribly mistreated, football clubs in the throes of crisis and teetering perilously on the brink of non-existence, while generations of fans lined the streets in a desperate attempt to force the boardroom change necessary to keep their clubs alive.

In Southend United's case, it was about as serious as it could get. A winding-up petition to the High Court over a £275,000 tax debt threatened to bring an end to the Shrimpers' 116-year history with much maligned owner Ron Martin at the centre of the protests for his refusal to sell up.

But at 4.40pm last Tuesday afternoon, the loyal faithful finally got the news they had waited so long for after a three-man consortium of supporters, led by Australian businessman Justin Rees, announced they had finally got the deal over the line.

"We can confirm that an agreement for the sale of the club has been reached with a consortium led by Justin Rees," a club statement read.

"We recognise that this has been a stressful time for all associated with the club. We would like to thank our staff for their incredible loyalty and also thank all our stakeholders for their patience."

Stressful is one way of putting it. Indeed, as Judge Sebastian Prentis said when concluding at a previously adjourned winding up hearing "if this were not a football club, with the particular attachment to its fans, I would be winding them up today,"

Martin, who took over the club in 1998, has been the target for all the fans' ire for how the situation has spiralled to the brink of abyss.

Protests have been held outside his house, marches through the coastal town before matches and games even held up when toy rats were thrown on the pitch in a desperate bid to get him to sell-up.

Fan power also won the day 230 miles further up the east coast when a bumper crowd of 5,063 attended Scunthorpe United game with Brackley Town last Saturday to celebrate the dawn of a new era for the Iron.

A takeover deal with former commercial director Michelle Harness finally brought an end to David Hilton's turbulent nine-month tenure in charge.

Hilton had replaced Peter Swann in the Glanford Park hotseat in January amid an FA investigation. Last week, he confirmed that he had withdrawn his funding from the club and was actively trying to sell the club.

On Wednesday, however, it was announced that, despite a looming eviction from Glanford Park, winding up petitions, county court judgements and players and staff not being paid, Harness had agreed to take over a 75 per cent share of the club, while fans did their bit by clubbing together to raise more than £68,000 to help pay the staff in their hour of need.

Saturday's game with Brackley Town was emotional for another reason as Scunthorpe's last at their famous Glanford Park home 'for the foreseeable future' with a groundshare in place at Gainsborough Trinity 17 miles away.
