FROM THE MANAGER

Welcome to Biggleswade FC Reserves for this Bedfordshire County League Premier Division match along with the referee Jack Vase.

We came into last week's fixture on the back of a couple of defeats, but knowing the performances had many positives aspects to them.

We started the game against Shefford Town & Campton Reserves off well, creating some very good opportunities but just not being able to find that finishing touch.

A brilliant free-kick save from goalkeeper George Austin kept the score level going into the break. We knew that in the second half, we needed to step up a gear and most importantly take one of our chances.

On 72 minutes, Alex Taylor slotted home to put us a goal up. Shefford created some good chances and we rode our luck to a degree towards the end of the game but a solid defensive display and a man-of-the-match performance from George Austin kept Shefford at bay as we took all three points with a 1-0 win.

Bradley Raines made his first appearance for the club after his transfer from Sharnbrook with a very impressive and hard-working performance.

We take on Biggleswade FC Reserves this afternoon in what is another important game for us as we look to carry on our positive momentum.

We look forward to all your support to cheer the lads on.

VISITING GOLD STREET

BIGGLESWADE FC RESERVES

Biggleswade FC Reserves have challenged for the Bedfordshire County League Premier Division title in recent seasons but the 2023-24 campaign has seen them battle at the other end of the table.

In recent weeks, they have managed to steer clear of the relegation zone into a safer lower midtable position.

FC Reserves have managed to win three of their last four League games. They defeated derby rivals Biggleswade United Reserves 3-1 away then edged to a 4-3 win at Flitwick Town and eased to a 4-2 home victory against Shefford Town & Campton Reserves where Dylan Asonganyi and Plamedi Bomolo both netted twice.

FC Reserves went down 1-0 at home to Stotfold Development last weekend.

BEDFORDSHIRE COUNTY LEAGUE ROUND-UP

AFC Oakley's disappointing form continued when they suffered a 3-2 home defeat against Crawley Green Reserves in the Bedfordshire County League Premier Division on 17th February despite goals from Chisom Amadi and Joel Ives.

The Luton side's scorers were Temitayo Akerele, Chris Butler and Lui Sarrington.

Alex Taylor netted as Riseley Sports bagged a 1-0 victory over struggling Shefford Town & Campton Reserves.

Stotfold Development remain top of the table after their 1-0 win at Biggleswade FC Reserves where the solitary goal came from Josh Bamford.

Elstow Abbey went on a goal frenzy, smashing nine goals past bottom club AFC Kempston Town Hammers without reply.

Lewis Parkin bagged a hat-trick while Steven Gentle netted twice. There were also a goal each from James Copley, Daniel Mattin, Jordan Nice and Daniel Parkin.

Biggleswade United Reserves' recent good form stalled when they went down 2-0 defeat at Marston Shelton Rovers, whose efforts came from Fin Brown and Luke Clifford.

Caldecote battled to a 4-2 victory at Flitwick Town where Bradley Janes scored twice while Jake Bruce and Sonny Newton-Cootes were also on target. Deven Brooke and Sam Killeen replied for Town.

AFC Oakley Development reached the semi-finals of the Bedfordshire FA County Intermediate Cup when they clinched a 3-2 away win over Renhold.

THE NON-LEAGUE PAPER

ESSENTIAL READING FOR FOLLOWERS OF THE NATIONAL GAME

To subscribe, visit www.thenonleaguefootballpaper.com/subscriptions

In the week where the sporting world stood still for the Taylor Swift show (aka, the Super Bowl), our very own live TV showcase was entering the spotlight.

While the pop superstar took centre stage during the most-watched sporting event across the Atlantic, the Football Association here were finalising terms for a four-year, multi-million pound deal with TNT Sports to show the FA Cup from the 2025-26 season.

As part of the agreement, TNT Sports, who have won many plaudits this season for their coverage of the National League and even North and South, will share the rights with a free-to-air broadcaster.

As part of the deal, all games from the third round onwards outside of 3pm kick-offs will be broadcast live, while the Wembley final will be shown on both TNT Sports and free-to-air.

At present, and for the past four seasons, the BBC and ITV currently share rights for the FA Cup and details of the extent of the involvement of free-to-air channels covering FA Cup games will be announced in due course.

TNT Sports, however, insist the deal, reportedly worth £66million-per-year - an increase of 15 per cent on the current deal - 'will ensure that the world's longest-running national knockout football competition continues to be as broadly available as possible across the UK'.

"Selected matches from every round will be available free-to-air, and highlights of every game will be made available," they said in a statement.

In his NLP column this week, Matt Badcock outlined the pros and cons of the new deal amidst a rather mixed social media reaction with critics suggesting having fewer FA Cup games shown live on free-to-air television hammers another nail in the world's most famous cup competition.

But, as Matt rightly pointed out, FA Cup ties being played behind a 'paywall' is nothing new. Sky Sports, Setanta, ESPN and BT Sport have all had deals in the past with another channel showing games free.

And, let's not forget, games will be free-to-air under this deal too. We just we don't yet know by who.

Suggestions are at least two games per round will be free to view - as well as one semi-final and the final - but, clearly, having stumped up the big bucks, TNT will dictate what they have. From a non-League point of view, that won't be such a bad thing if they put National League teams on the games. As mentioned earlier, their coverage of the National League this season has been exemplary.

Far from some of the patronising coverage non-league often has to put up with in the past, the TNT commentary team led by Adam Summerton and including the likes of Adam Virgo and Aaron McLean tell the National League story with knowledge and passion, capturing some of the division's biggest moments as if it were a Champions League final.

Crucially, Matt also points out that while opinion is shared on the deal, the real focus should be on the extra revenue and what it can do. FA Cup TV money is a key revenue stream for the FA to invest back into the game. A lot of good can be done with it and there are good people at Wembley who know that.
