FROM THE CHAIRMAN

Welcome to the officials, players and supporters of Spartans Youth for this Esoteric Recordings Division One Cup tie along with the referee Jarnail Singh and his assistants Andre Johnson Small and Prince Zakkai Small.

As many of you will know, we are struggling with the floodlights at Farm Park. Although there has been plenty of hard work behind the scenes to rectify the problem, they are not yet up to the required standard.

Therefore, in recent weeks, we have been kicking off at 2pm for Saturday games and for this evening's Esoteric Cup tie, we had to make a decision to play our home tie at another ground.

We are very grateful to our friends at Chalfont St Peter for helping us out at short notice and we hope you will enjoy your visit to Mill Meadow.

Our Cherry Red Records Combined Counties League Division One match on Saturday against British Airways at Farm Park was postponed because of a waterlogged pitch.

This meant we have had more time to prepare for this Esoteric Cup tie following our dramatic victory over British Airways last Tuesday that booked our place in the Middlesex Premier Cup final where we will be playing our League rivals Rolling Ballers Kensington at a venue and on a date to be announced.

After this evening's tie, we will be back in League action on Saturday when we travel to Yateley United, who have adapted well to Step Six football following their promotion but lost 8-3 at Penn & Tylers Green on the weekend.

Enjoy this evening's game and hopefully we can move one step closer to another final.

COMBINED COUNTIES LEAGUE REVIEW

Although the weather decimated the Cherry Red Records Combined Counties League Division One programme on Saturday, some interesting games survived.

After slipping from promotion contenders in August to the bottom of the table shortly after Christmas, Hillingdon finally found the art of points scoring when they clinched a 2-1 away victory over Bagshot.

Borough conceded a goal after 25 minutes when Bagshot's Ezekiel Coker netted.

Nicollas Freitas equalised with ten minutes remaining while Clayton Afonso smashed home the winner in the second minute of time added on.

Penn & Tylers Green bagged an amazing 8-3 triumph over Yateley United.

Adam Crocker, Kajtek Halatyn and Josh Pedley all netted twice with the other goals coming from Charlie Losasso and George Hennessey.

VISITING THE BROOK

SPARTANS YOUTH

Spartans Youth have struggled since early autumn in the Cherry Red Records Combined Counties League Division One.

Although they are towards the bottom of the table, the Northwood-based side are not in serious danger of relegation.

They ended their sequence without a win when they clinched an impressive 5-0 away victory over struggling Holmer Green recently.

The hero of the day was Lewis Davis, who bagged four goals while the other effort came from Donell Owuman-Mensah.

It was a tough festive period for Spartans Youth as they crashed 10-0 to League leaders Amersham Town in their last match of 2023.

They will be keen to have some cup success to bring some cheer to their season.

THE NON-LEAGUE PAPER

ESSENTIAL READING FOR FOLLOWERS OF THE NATIONAL GAME

In the week where the sporting world stood still for the Taylor Swift show (aka, the Super Bowl), our very own live TV showcase was entering the spotlight.

While the pop superstar took centre stage during the most-watched sporting event across the Atlantic, the Football Association here were finalising terms for a four-year, multi-million pound deal with TNT Sports to show the FA Cup from the 2025-26 season.

As part of the agreement, TNT Sports, who have won many plaudits this season for their coverage of the National League and even North and South, will share the rights with a free-to-air broadcaster.

As part of the deal, all games from the third round onwards outside of 3pm kick-offs will be broadcast live, while the Wembley final will be shown on both TNT Sports and free-to-air.

At present, and for the past four seasons, the BBC and ITV currently share rights for the FA Cup and details of the extent of the involvement of free-to-air channels covering FA Cup games will be announced in due course.

TNT Sports, however, insist the deal, reportedly worth £66million-per-year - an increase of 15 per cent on the current deal - 'will ensure that the world's longest-running national knockout football competition continues to be as broadly available as possible across the UK'.

"Selected matches from every round will be available free-to-air, and highlights of every game will be made available," they said in a statement.

In his NLP column this week, Matt Badcock outlined the pros and cons of the new deal amidst a rather mixed social media reaction with critics suggesting having fewer FA Cup games shown live on free-to-air television hammers another nail in the world's most famous cup competition.

But, as Matt rightly pointed out, FA Cup ties being played behind a 'paywall' is nothing new. Sky Sports, Setanta, ESPN and BT Sport have all had deals in the past with another channel showing games free.

And, let's not forget, games will be free-to-air under this deal too. We just we don't yet know by who.

Suggestions are at least two games per round will be free to view - as well as one semi-final and the final - but, clearly, having stumped up the big bucks, TNT will dictate what they have. From a non-League point of view, that won't be such a bad thing if they put National League teams on the games. As mentioned earlier, their coverage of the National League this season has been exemplary.

Far from some of the patronising coverage non-league often has to put up with in the past, the TNT commentary team led by Adam Summerton and including the likes of Adam Virgo and Aaron McLean tell the National League story with knowledge and passion, capturing some of the division's biggest moments as if it were a Champions League final.

Crucially, Matt also points out that while opinion is shared on the deal, the real focus should be on the extra revenue and what it can do. FA Cup TV money is a key revenue stream for the FA to invest back into the game. A lot of good can be done with it and there are good people at Wembley who know that.
