FROM THE CHAIRMAN

Welcome to the officials, players and supporters of Penn & Tylers Green for this Cherry Red Records Combined Counties League Division One match along with the referee Krandeep Grewal and his assistants Bartosz Pawluk and Mourad Bougouzi. Please note this is a 2pm kick-off.

It has been an enjoyable start to 2024 for Brook House and we are currently unbeaten in all matches since the start of the year.

We started with a 3-3 draw at Oxhey Jets and this was followed by a 3-2 home win against London Colney.

After an enforced break because of the weather, we went to Reading last weekend to take on Woodley United and came away with all three points thanks to goals from Jacob Adeyemi and substitute Jade McCrea.

Then on Wednesday evening, Brook House reached the semi-finals of the Middlesex FA County Premier Cup.

We were held to a 2-2 draw by Step Seven side Shepherd's Bush, who play in the Middlesex County League Premier Division. This meant the tie had to be sorted by a penalty-mark competition.

And I must admit I lost the remainder of my finger nails as we finally won a thrilling contest by a 14-13 margin.

We will be at home in the semi-final against British Airways and the tie has been provisionally scheduled for Tuesday 20th February. This would mean we will have to postpone our League game at London Samurai Rovers.

Enjoy the game this afternoon.

CCL DIVISION ONE REVIEW

These may be famous last words but Brook House should now be safe for another season in the Cherry Red Records Combined Counties League Division One.

The 2-1 win at Woodley United last weekend has elevated The Brook to 16th position and they are 12 points clear of second from bottom Holmer Green.

Goals from Jacob Adeyemi and Jake McCrea ensured that Brook House came away from Reading with the three points.

Their focus now has to be to close the gap on the sides that are in midtable.

Bagshot continued their recent improved form with a 3-1 victory at Westside where Hamza Abubakari, Jake Cunningham and substitute Lee Banbury.

Amersham Town continued their march at the top of the table with a 3-2 home win over Rising Ballers Kensington.

VISITING THE BROOK

PENN & TYLERS GREEN

Penn & Tylers Green have been in the Cherry Red Records Combined Counties League Division One since the start of the 2022-23 campaign, having switched from the Spartans South Midlands League.

After a slow start, Penn adapted to their new league and finished in a comfortable midtable position.

They are likely to finish in a similar position this season and are well away from the relegation zone.

However, since defeating Hillingdon Borough 4-0 away on 11th November, Penn & Tylers Green went eight games without a win.

In this sequence, they managed draws against Spartans Youth, Woodley United, London Colney and London Samurai Rovers.

The poor run of League form was ended on Tuesday evening when they clinched a 3-2 away victory over struggling Bagshot.

Driving to Ipswich Town on Saturday morning for Maidstone United's lunchtime FA Cup fourth round tie, a shock was far from the mind.

The Stones have been this year's biggest story. Upsets of League Two Barrow and League One Stevenage had taken them into club history books as the squad to progress the furthest since reformation in 1992.

But, this was Ipswich Town. A team who have been sensational since the arrival of boss Kieran McKenna, won promotion from League One last term, and are pushing for the Premier League this.

With the reporter's hat on, the plan was simple: write a colour piece about the journey George Elokobi's side have been on in this season's competition, make heavy reference to the 4,500 fans who were in Suffolk to support their side, and look ahead to the rest of the Stones' season as they return their focus to the National League South promotion race.

Maybe they will get a draw? That would be some result. But, reader, cards on table, I did not believe.

Let's face it, who did? The other 22,000 fans inside Portman Road were certainly expecting the home side to win - despite making ten changes.

But not believing was the first mistake. The National League South side's run in this year's FA Cup was not about to come to an end. Lamar Reynolds' gorgeous opener, chipping the ball over the onrushing Christian Walton, had us all wondering, could they do it?

Jeremy Sarmiento responded for the hosts after the break and, you assumed, they would go on for more.

But Sam Corne, hero from the penalty spot in round three, swept in the most composed of finishes for 2-1 and then, with the help of inspired keeper Lucas Covolan, they held on for a famous victory.

Boss Elokobi believed.

"If you know George Elokobi - I am a believer," he said in the post-match press conference. "As an individual, as a management team, we believed we could truly come here and compete against a fantastic Championship side.

"In our preparations we showed every bit of respect to Ipswich Town. We normally train on 3G but we hired a grass pitch. We looked at the dimensions of Ipswich's pitch and we created that in our environment to give our boys visuals and create what we were going to be coming up against. Waves of attacks, so our defenders can be resilient.

"Each and every person who was fit to take part today, knew what their jobs were. We knew we had to run a little bit more than we've ever done. But we believed."

Their fifth round draw hasn't brought the Premier League big gun they'd have been hoping for. Instead, it's the winner of Sheffield Wednesday and Coventry City, who lost out to Luton Town in last season's Championship play-off final.

Whoever they face, this trip will be made full of belief. A Step Two side in the quarter-finals of the FA Cup if they win? They couldn't. Could they?
