FROM THE CHAIRMAN

Welcome to the officials, players and supporters of British Airways for this Cherry Red Records Combined Counties League Division One match along with the referee Neil Jenkins and his assistants Paul Bennett and Dominic De Silva.

I am the first to admit that we have had a difficult season towards the bottom of the table but we now have something to cheer.

Firstly, we have made a good start to 2024 and our current unbeaten run has seen us move up the table.

But we had cause to celebrate on Tuesday evening when we reached the final of the Middlesex Premier Cup with a 3-2 victory over British Airways. Luke Gilmartin scored twice with the other effort coming from Trey Pender-Brown.

We will be facing CCL Division One opposition in the county final as Rising Ballers Kensington clinched a 3-1 victory over Step Seven outfit Kensington Dragons.

A date and venue has now to be decided for the final but we expect it to take place towards the end of the season.

I was pleased with the size of the crowd on Tuesday evening with over 200 spectators flocking to the match. Hopefully we will have a big following at the final whenever it is play.

We return to League action this afternoon where we will be again facing British Airways. I am sure they will be looking for revenge for their midweek defeat against us. Also they will be keen to strengthen their play-off position.

And after today's game, we are at home on Tuesday when we entertain Spartans Youth in the Esoteric Division One Cup. This match will be at Chalfont St Peter with a 7.45pm kick-off.

COMBINED COUNTIES LEAGUE REVIEW

While Brook House and Rising Ballers Kensington reached the final of the Middlesex Premier Cup on Tuesday evening, there were also two important League games.

Sidney Gueye, Louis Stead and Jake Tabor were on target as Cherry Red Records Combined Counties League Division One leaders Amersham Town clinched a 3-1 victory over Woodley United, whose reply came from Joshua Nwokobia.

The win extends Amersham Town's lead to 15 points over second placed Berks County, who now have a game in hand.

Eversley & California kept their play-off hopes alive with a 2-0 away win against Spartans Youth.

An intriguing clash this afternoon, involving leading sides in the division, sees leaders Amersham Town travel to Molesey, who topped the table during the early stages of the campaign.

THE NON-LEAGUE PAPER

ESSENTIAL READING FOR FOLLOWERS OF THE NATIONAL GAME

In the week where the sporting world stood still for the Taylor Swift show (aka, the Super Bowl), our very own live TV showcase was entering the spotlight.

While the pop superstar took centre stage during the most-watched sporting event across the Atlantic, the Football Association here were finalising terms for a four-year, multi-million pound deal with TNT Sports to show the FA Cup from the 2025-26 season.

As part of the agreement, TNT Sports, who have won many plaudits this season for their coverage of the National League and even North and South, will share the rights with a free-to-air broadcaster.

As part of the deal, all games from the third round onwards outside of 3pm kick-offs will be broadcast live, while the Wembley final will be shown on both TNT Sports and free-to-air.

At present, and for the past four seasons, the BBC and ITV currently share rights for the FA Cup and details of the extent of the involvement of free-to-air channels covering FA Cup games will be announced in due course.

TNT Sports, however, insist the deal, reportedly worth £66million-per-year - an increase of 15 per cent on the current deal - 'will ensure that the world's longest-running national knockout football competition continues to be as broadly available as possible across the UK'.

"Selected matches from every round will be available free-to-air, and highlights of every game will be made available," they said in a statement.

In his NLP column this week, Matt Badcock outlined the pros and cons of the new deal amidst a rather mixed social media reaction with critics suggesting having fewer FA Cup games shown live on free-to-air television hammers another nail in the world's most famous cup competition.

But, as Matt rightly pointed out, FA Cup ties being played behind a 'paywall' is nothing new. Sky Sports, Setanta, ESPN and BT Sport have all had deals in the past with another channel showing games free.

And, let's not forget, games will be free-to-air under this deal too. We just we don't yet know by who.

Suggestions are at least two games per round will be free to view - as well as one semi-final and the final - but, clearly, having stumped up the big bucks, TNT will dictate what they have. From a non-League point of view, that won't be such a bad thing if they put National League teams on the games. As mentioned earlier, their coverage of the National League this season has been exemplary.

Far from some of the patronising coverage non-league often has to put up with in the past, the TNT commentary team led by Adam Summerton and including the likes of Adam Virgo and Aaron McLean tell the National League story with knowledge and passion, capturing some of the division's biggest moments as if it were a Champions League final.

Crucially, Matt also points out that while opinion is shared on the deal, the real focus should be on the extra revenue and what it can do. FA Cup TV money is a key revenue stream for the FA to invest back into the game. A lot of good can be done with it and there are good people at Wembley who know that.
