FROM THE CHAIRMAN

Welcome to the officials, players and supporters of Hillingdon Borough for this Cherry Red Records Combined Counties League Division One match along with the referee Ashley Carley and his assistants Luke Partington and Ryan Hetherington.

There was more disappointment on Saturday when we suffered a 3-2 defeat against this evening's opponents Hillingdon Borough.

I don't know if it is a good thing to meet a side twice in a week but this is a re-arranged game with the original clash being postponed at Christmas.

We had a good start to 2024 where we went on an unbeaten run and closed the gap on the sides that are in midtable.

For a long while, we remained in 16th position but after recent defeats we have slipped down to 17th. We, however, should be safe from relegation.

We are in the middle of a tough run of games that have to be played in a just a few days. After this evening's clash, we are at home again, this time against Windsor in another match that has had to be rescheduled.

We are at Westfield on Wednesday 1st May and finally we have a date for the trip to struggling Holmer Green. This will be on Saturday 4th May and should be our final game of the season.

On Tuesday evening, we were at Yateley United, a side that has done well in their first season at Step Six. There were a number of changes and although we went down 2-0, it was a competitive performance with Mohammed Ali taking the man-of-the-match award.

COMBINED COUNTIES LEAGUE REVIEW

It is a manic time in the Cherry Red Records Combined Counties League Division One with some teams such as Hillingdon Borough having to play on consecutive days.

On the other hand, some sides such as Yateley United will have completed their campaigns by this evening.

As at last night, Amersham had been confirmed as champions while British Airways Berks County and Eversley & California have secured their places in the play-offs.

The final two play-off places are being contested by Molesey and Rising Ballers Kensington. Both Yateley United and Langley appear to have missed out.

At the other end of the table, Bagshot have completed their matches and are bottom.

Holmer Green and London Colney will finish in the bottom three so face the threat of relegation.

VISITING THE BROOK

HILLINGDON BOROUGH

Hillingdon Borough are grateful to current Swansea City winger Yannick Bolasie for their survival.

On 17th January 2017, the club released a statement via their Twitter account that the club would be pulling out of the Southern League Division South & West due to monetary troubles.

However, Bolasie, who played for Hillingdon during the 2006-07 season, contacted the club, with the support of Everton, to help with the club's financial situation.

Hillingdon Borough survived and Bolasie stayed at Everton until 2021.

Hillingdon Borough was originally founded as Yiewsley in 1872 after a meeting of eight local businessmen who met at the instigation of Freddie Clinch, a baker of Fairfield Road, Yiewsley who provided the majority of the financial backing for the venture.

On 1st May 1964, the FA Council granted permission for Yiewsley to change their name to Hillingdon Borough FC.

This was done to reflect the local government reorganisation in London that was to see the formation of the London Borough of Hillingdon on 1st April 1965.

There's nothing quite like the FA Cup to spark debate among football fans. Whether it's kick-off time on FA Cup final day – incidentally this year's is 3pm – or clamours for a return to semi-finals away from Wembley, the world's oldest competition always stirs debate.

You will have no doubt seen the furore around the news replays will be scrapped from the first round proper onwards next season.

A big trigger, apparently, is the expanding UEFA schedule going forward and there are promises of more funding for the grass-roots game.

A post on BBC Sport's X account suggested it would divide opinion – the reality was a large part of it fell on one side.

There probably isn't enough space in this programme column to go through all the 'he says, she says', and much more. But it has ignited passionate views from all corners of the game, to say the least.

What's your view? Are replays outdated or the very fabric of the great FA Cup?

For many in the lower leagues and non-league, replays not only represent a chance to make extra money on top of a current cup run through gates and potential broadcast fees, they are also an opportunity to create memories.

Many clubs have come out and said exactly that over this past week.

Steve McKimm's Cray Valley PM held Charlton Athletic to a draw earlier this season and earned the right to welcome the League One club to their intimate Artic Stadium home in front of the live TV cameras.

"The money they're saying will be passed down is great – but money doesn't make memories," McKimm told us.

"We've had memories this season that will never be taken away from our staff, players and fans. And I only speak for our club – Horsham did the same.

"We both had away games to start with so we had the experience of playing at their grounds.

"Then we had the opportunity to bring good players, good teams, back to our home ground on live TV. That's gone now.

"But it's the memories that matter more than the money. For clubs that make money off it, such as us, it's great.

It helps a club be sustainable and it helps it move on. But it also gives the club memories.

"Cray Valley have never had a League One side come and play a competitive game at our stadium. We've done that now."

As the Millers boss says, Horsham did the same in this year's competition – earning a replay after a thrilling 3-3 draw with Barnsley before a memorable home tie with the Tykes.

There are many other examples. Think back down the years to Burton Albion, then in the Conference, taking the mighty Manchester United to a second game.

The tangible legacy is seen at the club today, but for fans and players the memories burn bright too.

Football, as a whole, should be sure it's happy giving moments like those up.
