FROM THE CHAIRMAN

Welcome to the officials, players and supporters of Enfield Borough for this Middlesex FA Senior Charity Cup First Round tie along with the referee Anthony Cox and his assistants Mathew Dyachuk and John Noblemunn.

Our run of knock-out games continues this afternoon as we make an appearance in the Middlesex Senior Charity Cup competition.

As there are 23 sides in the Cherry Red Records Combined Counties League Division One, every side has a blank Saturday. And this afternoon is our turn not to have a League fixture. But our loyal match secretary Barry Crump suggested it would be a good idea to fit in a cup game while our pitch is in good condition. And we are grateful that our opponents Enfield Borough, from the Thurlow Nunn Eastern Counties League, agreed to play this match today.

It has not been the best of weeks as far as the cups are concerned but we have had two very difficult ties against sides, who are doing well in our division. Last weekend, we had to travel to our League leaders Windsor & Eton for an Isuzu FA Vase tie where I thought we put up a good fight and went ahead through Lewis Davis. However, the Royalists fought back with three late goals but I felt overall we had put in a committed performance and deserved, at least, to take the game to kicks from the penalty-spot.

It was a different story on Tuesday evening when we hosted Westside in the Esoteric Recordings Division One Challenge Cup. The visitors took control of the game as we went down to another 3-1 defeat. Hopefully we will have better luck this afternoon.

We have dates for two re-arranged League games. We host Westside on 3rd December and Rising Ballers Kensington come to Farm Park on 25th February.

Enjoy the game.

ROUND-UP

☐ Dates have been arranged for two fixtures that had to be postponed. We were due to play Westside in the League on 19th October but was postponed because we had Isuzu FA Vase commitments against Windsor & Eton. The Westside game has been scheduled for 3rd December at 7.45pm. The match against Rising Ballers Kensington was called off on 8th October because of a waterlogged pitch. This game will now be played on 25th February at 7.45pm.

☐ Brook House Reserves are without a game this weekend in the Middlesex County League Division One North West. Their next League match is on Saturday 2nd November when they are at home to Hillside. Their last outing was an 8-0 away success against lowly Eagles Land Cricklewood Reserves.

COMBINED COUNTIES LEAGUE REVIEW

Colliers Wood United continued their improved form when they clinched a 2-1 victory over Eversley & California on Wednesday evening.

The United goals came from Suryaksh Tewatia and Nathan Best.

Staines & Lammas and Oxhey Jets both picked up their first draw of the season when they played out a 1-1 scoreline. The Jets effort came from George Rice.

On Tuesday evening, Belstone continued their recent excellent form when they defeated Bedfont 5-1 with Emile Hohmann netting twice. The other scorers for the hosts were Taylor Cobb, Kaci Henry and Noah Costin while Luke Owens replied for the away team.

Penn & Tylers Green showed their class when they defeated FC Deportivo Galicia 5-2 with Alfie Branwhite bagging a hat-trick while Cory Hathaway and David Pearce were also on target.

CHERRY RED RECORDS COMBINED COUNTIES LEAGUE DIVISION ONE STRUCTURE 2024-25

There were a number of new sides in the Cherry Red Records Combined Counties League Division One for the 2024-25 season.

A couple have slipped down from a higher level and it was not long ago Chalfont St Peter were a Step Four outfit.

Several clubs have moved up from Step Seven including the current leaders Windsor & Eton.

Now that is a name which once graced leagues such as the Isthmian in years gone by. But the current version is relatively new.

Another of the newcomers on their way up is Belstone and are currently in a play-off position.

PFC Victoria have made a steady start while Staines & Lammas are slowly finding their feet.

Both Colliers Wood United and Chalfont St Peter are still trying to find their feet at a lower level.

ENFIELD BOROUGH

Enfield Borough was established by former Brimsdown management team Marvin Walker and Aaron Archer in 2016 and joined Division Two of the Spartan South Midlands League.

After finishing third in the division in their first season, they were promoted to Division One.

At the end of the 2020-21 season the club were transferred to Division One of the Combined Counties League. After one season in the Combined Counties League, they were transferred to Division One South of the Thurlow Nunn Eastern Counties League.

Based in Finchley, Enfield Borough are currently 14th out of 20 sides in Division One South, having won four and drawn two of their 14 games.

In their latest outing last weekend, Enfield

You may have caught our recent programme column on former non-league players excelling as coaches at the elite level of the game.

The current poster boy is, of course, Anthony Barry. In case you didn't see it, the former Conference title winner landed a new job last week.

England assistant manager!

It's only been seven years since he was in Wrexham's midfield. Since taking the coaching path, he's been on the staff at Chelsea, Bayern Munich, Belgium and Portugal – now he will be Thomas Tuchel's right-hand man.

"Pretty incredible," he said when asked how it felt for England's YouTube channel. "Quite surreal. The process since it started has been fantastic. Thomas and I have loved every minute of it. As soon as I've seen this project capture the imagination of Thomas in the way that it did, we were back and forward sharing so much energy towards it, the imagination of the team and what we can do with these players.

"And then, of course, there is the extra layer for me. I am an Englishman. I've worked at other federations around the world. It was always a privilege to work on the highest level. But to come home now and represent The FA, England and the Three Lions is something that is the proudest day of my career so far."

Liverpool-born Barry, 38, progressed through the Everton youth ranks but was released at 18 and went on to play for Coventry City, Accrington Stanley, Yeovil Town and Chester City. Barry joined Fleetwood Town to help them win promotion to the Football League before joining Step One Forest Green Rovers for the 2013-14 season.

Finishing his career after a second stint at Wrexham, Barry joined Paul Cook's backroom staff at Wigan in 2017 and after a chance meeting with Frank Lampard while studying for his UEFA Pro-Licence.

His detailed analysis of 16,380 throw-ins made a mark on Lampard and Barry was drafted in to work under the Blues legend as a set-piece coach – a role which he has since gone on to make his name.

Lampard departed in January 2021, but Barry stayed on at Stamford Bridge to work under his successor Tuchel. The pair developed a strong friendship, helping Chelsea win the Champions League, and when Tuchel was sacked by Chelsea in September 2022, he returned for Barry when he was appointed at Bayern Munich the following year. England will be their third job together.

This, however, will not be Barry's first foray into international football having worked with the Republic of Ireland and also under Roberto Martinez with both Belgium and Portugal.

But while the 2026 World Cup may now be in his sights, the humble Three Lions assistant says he still looks back today on his very first taste of coaching at the age of 29, working with Accrington Stanley's Under-16s side with injury now stalling his playing career.

"I remember that first session so clearly," Barry told the Essential Euros podcast last summer. "It was on a Tuesday night. It was with around 10 players. I had a third of a pitch, not enough balls, not enough bibs. But I simply fell in love with coaching and on that night I knew it was absolutely everything I wanted to do.
