FROM THE CHAIRMAN

Welcome to the officials, players and supporters of Bedfont for this Cherry Red Records Combined Counties League Division One match along with the referee Phillip Mayer and his assistants Mourad Bougouzi and Angus McWhirter.

Our fixtures secretary Barry Crump is close to getting a degree for arranging matches. He has progressed to the advance level on his course, dealing with some complex scenarios in recent weeks.

The end result could be beneficial to Brook House because we should not be required to play three or four games per week to complete the campaign.

The League are keen that all clubs are able to complete their season comfortably and to achieve this scheduled more midweek games before Christmas.

This has proved reasonably successful to date and currently our final match of the league season is scheduled for 5th April when we are due to host Windsor & Eton.

At one point, we had March effectively clear of matches but this is no longer the case. Re-arranged games have been slotted in and the reality is that we are now playing Saturday-Tuesday-Saturday during this month.

Compared to what we have had to experience in recent years, this is definitely not a hardship, However, there is a word of caution. We are likely to face more postponements because of the weather but hopefully it will not be a massive problem.

When the fixtures appeared to have been confirmed shortly before Christmas, some games were missing from the list. One of these was the trip to Penn & Tylers Green but this was pencilled in for Tuesday evening just gone, when we suffered a disappointing 4-0 defeat.

FIXTURE NEWS

Brook House's season will last until at least April following the latest round of re-arranged fixtures.

The Brook's league season is scheduled to end on 5th April with the visit to Farm Park of high-flyers Windsor & Eton.

Up until Christmas, Brook House's campaign was due to end in early March. However, a series of re-arranged games has filled this month with two games per week.

This includes three successive home games against FC Deportivo Galicia, Yateley United and London Samurai.

This sequence is followed by a trio of trips to Belstone, Hillingdon Borough and RB Kensington.

Towards the end of the month, Brook House entertain Molesey before the finale against Windsor & Eton.

The Brook still have an interest in the Middlesex Premier Cup.

COMBINED COUNTIES LEAGUE REVIEW

Penn & Tylers Green showed why they are at the top of the Cherry Red Records Combined Counties League Division One when they bagged a 4-0 victory against an improved Brook House on Tuesday.

It was a tight affair until Chris Blunden opened the scoring in the 33rd minute. From this point, the Buckinghamshire side took control with David Pearce scoring twice while Charlie Losasso bagged a late goal.

In a top-of-the table clash, Belstone battled to an excellent 2-0 win at Windsor & Eton.

Mark Ajayi gave the visitors the perfect start when he gave them the lead in the 14th minute.

The points were secured when Emile Hofmann fired home in the 55th minute.

At the other end of the table, FC Deportivo Galicia eased their situation with a 2-0 success against PFC Victoria.

CHERRY RED RECORDS COMBINED COUNTIES LEAGUE DIVISION ONE STRUCTURE 2024-25

There were a number of new sides in the Cherry Red Records Combined Counties League Division One for the 2024-25 season.

A couple have slipped down from a higher level and it was not long ago Chalfont St Peter were a Step Four outfit.

Several clubs have moved up from Step Seven including the current leaders Windsor & Eton.

Now that is a name which once graced leagues such as the Isthmian in years gone by. But the current version is relatively new.

Another of the newcomers on their way up is Belstone and are currently in a play-off position.

PFC Victoria have made a steady start while Staines & Lammas are slowly finding their feet.

Both Colliers Wood United and Chalfont St Peter are still trying to find their feet at a lower level.

VISITING THE BROOK

BEDFONT

Bedfont may be clear of the relegation zone in the Cherry Red Records Combined Counties League Division One but it has been a below-par campaign.

However, recent form has indicated that Bedfont could finish in a respectable midtable position.

The Yellows have won two of their last three matches although these have been against clubs struggling towards the bottom of the table.

After a run of disappointing results, Bedfont ended this sequence with a 1-0 win at Rising Ballers Kensington, where Luke Maguire scored a late winner.

This was followed by a 3-2 home defeat against FC Deportivo Galicia despite goals from Zobair Elmoumni and Andre Smith.

Goals from Conor Molyneaux, Jason Keate, Andre Smith and a Patrick Harvey own goal clinched a 4-1 victory at London Samurai Rovers.

When Marc White and his mates decided to form Dorking Wanderers, Manchester United had just won the treble.

Twenty-six years on, White and the Sussex club – who started in 1999 in the Crawley & District League – have reached the 1,000 game milestone.

It sees boss White join a select club of long-serving bosses.

But it only tells part of the story of a club that has risen through the divisions to the top table in non-league.

And while last year they suffered their first ever relegation, White is determined to get his Meadowbank outfit promoted from the National League South again.

White sat down with The NLP in the build-up to the milestone moment against Weston-super-Mare last weekend.

“Yeah, washing the kit... On a Saturday morning I’d be stretching the socks out, thinking ‘why are they shrinking?’” he told The Non-League Paper.

“My ritual was to go to the Big Field in Brockham early and put the nets up. I’d hang out the kit, have lunch and meet the boys. I wouldn’t swap it because I really enjoyed it but I was doing everything - literally.

When you get to this level, you swap those problems for money. I wouldn’t mind those problems again.”

And when he says problems, invariably at this level - where teams such as his own are a hybrid mixture of full and part-time - that means money.

But there’s always been something to fork out for, even when Dorking were at their last ground, Westhumble.

“I remember having to spend 12 grand to build a boardroom to stay in the division,” he says.

“Floodlights, concrete paths - the demands on facilities are really high.

“There is a lot of funding available but what’s never available is land. That’s every club’s biggest challenge in football.”

White admits it didn’t cross his mind as he entered the new millennium that Wanderers could ever become the force at the top of the non-league pyramid that they are now.

“Never. We’d socialise at The Royal Oak - they were our original sponsor,” he continues.

“I felt bad asking for £280. We were a big bunch of mates, we’d go out after the match. The winning became a bug, infectious, and we wanted more of it.”

With their ever-growing following fuelled by the Bunch of Amateurs YouTube series that gives a no-holds-barred look inside the club, White and Dorking have become two of non-league’s most recognisable names.

But it’s promotion on the field he really craves.

“There is an element of thinking when you have all that success that you’re immortal,” he says of their relegation.

“So when it did, it was a big shock to all of us. We’re all waiting for the next step forward, we can’t wait.”
